Drugs and Alcohol

Any employee, who is found to be under the influence of or using, or possessing illegal drugs on Company or client premises or while conducting Company business, is subject to disciplinary action, including possible termination. While conducting Company business, employees are advised not to be under the influence of alcohol or other similar substances or improperly use medication in any way that could diminish — or raise questions concerning — ability to perform their job or result in their doing things that might be harmful to the Company.

Protection and Proper Use of Company's Assets

All Directors and Employees should protect Company's assets and property and ensure its efficient use. Theft, carelessness, and waste of the Company's assets and property have a direct impact on the Company's profitability. Company's assets should be used only for legitimate business purposes.

Equal employment opportunity, Prohibiting Discrimination & Harassment

ORS strives to hire and promote people on the basis of their qualifications, performance, and abilities, and is determined to provide a work environment free of any form of illegal discrimination both direct and indirect, including, but not limited to, sexual harassment. Further, ORS is committed to maintaining a workplace where each employee's privacy and personal dignity are respected and protected from offensive or threatening behavior including violence.

ORS perceives harassment as a form of discrimination that is offensive, undermines the integrity of employment relationships and causes serious harm to the productivity, efficiency and stability of the organisation. Harassment may include (but is not limited to) making unwelcome sexual advances, sending or displaying obscene or racist materials, or sending or telling offensive jokes or comments, verbally or otherwise. Harassment can be verbal, physical or visual behaviour where the purpose or effect is to create an offensive, hostile or intimidating environment. ORS endeavors to ensure a congenial environment where employees can work without any inhibition and contribute their best without fear or favour. Any employee who engages in such prohibited conduct will be subject to disciplinary action.

Employees shall refrain from taking discriminatory actions or decisions which are contrary to the letter or spirit of this Code.

If employees believe that they have witnessed or are being subjected to discrimination or harassment, they shall immediately report the matter using the reporting procedures as mentioned in the Code. ORS views reports of retaliation seriously. Anyone found to have retaliated against another individual will face disciplinary action.

In addition, the Company will not tolerate sexual harassment by or against third parties on the Company's premises.

Electronic Resources Usage

The purpose of this policy is to make sure that employees utilize electronic communication devices in a legal, ethical and appropriate manner. Electronic communication devices are provided to employees for business purposes and to enable employees to perform official responsibilities more efficiently. Employees may be allowed to use electronic communication devices for reasonable personal purposes in accordance with the Company policy.

Employees must ensure that the content of text, audio or images that they place, send or forward over the internet or intranet are:
